HAYWARD SUNDAY LEAGUE ROUND UP

Division One

Abbey	6-0	Shoulder of Mutton
NMO	6-6	East Christchurch SSC

Pacesetters East Christchurch SSC finished all square for the third successive DIVISION ONE game when they drew 6-6 with NMO. Dave Midgley was the five goal star for the unbeaten championship favourites with James Tunnicliffe also on target while NMO netted through Lee Baxter, Ashley Booker, and Matt Vining's four goal blast.

Abbey chalked up their tenth successive win in all competitions when they gave Shoulder of Mutton a 6-0 drubbing thanks to Dan Manuel's four goal blitz and a Simon Bereznicki brace.

Division Two

Bmth Electric	1-3	Rushmere
Loch & Quay	4-1	JP Morgan
Magpies	0-10	Parley Sports

Unbeaten DIVISION TWO high flyers Loch & Quay need six points from their four remaining games to become champions after River Smith (2), Ethan Maddocks, and Danny Hiscock accounted for JP Morgan 4-1. Ben Gard scored JP Morgan's consolation goal.

Loch & Quay will be hoping to complete the first part of a league and cup double when they meet unbeaten Division Three leaders West Howe at Hurn Bridge on Thursday night (7:30pm) in the M.A. Hart In-Excess Cup Final.

Tailenders Magpies were on the receiving end again when Parley Sports walloped them 10-0 thanks to Robert Murphy's four goal blitz and further goals from Ryan Barker (2), Carl Phillips, Martin Johnson, Simon Adair, and Matt Fermor.
