

Emergency striker saves the day

Ringwood Town Development move up to third place in the HAYWARD SATURDAY LEAGUE despite being held to a 2-2 draw by Westover Bournemouth. Joe Parker gave Westover the lead midway through the first half but Ringwood came back after the break with a couple of goals from Dan Whitelaw. Westover's 80th minute equaliser came from an unexpected source with goalkeeper Rob Voysey, pressed into service as an emergency centre forward, powering home a header from a corner.

Sam Wiggins netted for Mudeford Mens Club but Camerons upended them 4-1 with goals from David Bratt, Craig White, Dan Brennan, and substitute Sam Griffiths.

Meanwhile AFC Burton returned to winning ways after three successive league defeats with a 3-0 success against Fordingbridge Turks courtesy of Sam Nash, Dominic Harris, and substitute Leon Jarrett.

Yusuf Akanni and Ruben Barros bagged two apiece in Bisterne United's 7-2 triumph over Winkton Athletic. Charlie King, Pat Rogerson, and Claudio Carvalho added one each for Bisterne with Jonathan Hatcher and Jon King replying for Winkton.
