

FA SUNDAY CUP ROUND UP

SUNDAY 6th OCTOBER 2019

Diminutive defender Abdulaziz Aldhayan scored a dramatic last minute winner to give Talbot Rangers the verdict 3-2 against Hayward Sunday League rivals Loch & Quay in the eagerly awaited F.A. SUNDAY CUP first round tie at Lymington.

Ben Hatch had given Loch & Quay a 5th minute lead, neatly clipping the ball into the top corner, and they had a glorious opportunity to double their advantage ten minutes later when they were awarded a penalty. Goalkeeper Jack Robinson came to Rangers' rescue though, getting down superbly to stop Jamie Morgan's spot kick and then reacting quickly to save Dan Hiscock's follow up effort.

New signing Max Crow put Rangers on terms midway through the first half with a superb 25 yard strike and Shane Sheridan slammed home a rebound to put them in front ten minutes before the interval,

Loch & Quay levelled ten minutes from time when Rafael Santos burst through on the left to drive the ball past the 'keeper but "Aziz" Aldhayan won the tie for Rangers with his last gasp effort, sprinting through the middle to round the 'keeper and plant the ball in the back of the net.

East Christchurch SSC are also in the draw for the second round after their opponents Broadwater withdrew from the competition.

HAYWARD SUNDAY LEAGUE ROUND UP - SUNDAY 6th OCTOBER 2019

There was late drama at Fernheath Road where Ritchie Whiting's 85th minute strike gave West Howe the edge 2-1 in a hard fought DIVISION ONE game with Alderney Manor. Alderney had drawn first blood after 39 minutes when Aaron Carrivick's superbly flighted ball from the left was headed home by Jim Crossin. West Howe equalised midway through the second half when Ritchie Whiting's 30 yard free kick took a deflection off a defender to deceive the visitors' 'keeper. Whiting then clinched all three points in the dying minutes when, after a neat exchange of passes on the edge of the box, he steered the ball clinically past the 'keeper. Abbey take over on top of the table despite being held to a 1-1 draw by Newtown Athletic. Max Wilcock was the Abbey scorer while Ian Male earned the visitors their first point of the season.
