SUNDAY LEAGUE

Athletic and Borough prevail in semis

Parkstone Athletic and New Milton Borough will meet in the M.A. HART NICHOLAS READ CUP final after winning their respective semi finals.

Camerons Reserves had been unassailable in Division Six, the Hampshire Vase, and the Nicholas Read Cup so far this season and, despite losing Tyrone Carkeet through injury in the early minutes, it looked as though it would be business as usual when Fernando da Silva gave them a first half lead. Division Six promotion rivals Parkstone Athletic came back after the break however through Ethan Fishlock and an own goal to win 2-1.

Charlie King was the hat-trick hero when New Milton Borough booked their place in the final with a 5-2 success against Muscliff Dynamos. Alex Corbin and Joe Cragg were the other Borough marksmen with Ben Mead and Morris McColl replying for the Division Seven side.

‘Keeper is hero in Celtic’s cup win

Boscombe Celtic Reserves were indebted to their goalkeeper Steve Cannings when they got the better of Division Four rivals Shane Stanley 2-0 in their M.A. LAWRENCE A BRIVATI CUP quarter final. Shane Stanley would have had a commanding lead were it not for Cannings’ heroics before second half goals from Alex Hawey and Connor Picken put Celtic through to the semi finals.

Alderney ruin Wiseguys’ record

Wisguys perfect record in DIVISION ONE of the Hayward Sunday League was ruined when Alderney Manor upended them 3-0 with goals from Sam Goodwin, Tom Mann, and Ian Male.

West Howe are level on points with leaders Abbey after their 6-1 triumph over Shoulder of Mutton. Kyle Leach struck twice with Dan Dominey, Rhys Evans, Ellis George, and Jordan Whittle adding one each while substitute Dan Ferguson provided some consolation for Shoulder.

FC Hajduk are three points behind the leaders with a game in hand after subduing Bournemouth Athletic 6-2 courtesy of Jack Myers, Mitchell Cannings, and Ollie Balmer's four goal blast. Taku Hagino and Nick Bougos were the Athletic goalscorers.

AFC Wimborne hold leaders

Meanwhile, at the other end of the table, Alex Rossi's strike for Boscombe Celtic was not quite enough to save Boscombe Celtic from a 2-1 defeat against West Moors whose goals came from Jay Puleston and Nathan Taylor.

Rovers return again

With Boscombe Celtic Reserves in cup action, Poole Rovers return to the top of DIVISION FOUR again after their 6-3 success against Allegro Park Rangers. Joe Rendell and Callum

Alderney Ressies replace leaders

Jacob Monk netted for West Howe Reserves but they took a heavy 6-1 tumble against Alderney Manor Reserves who replace them on top of DIVISION FIVE. David Speed and Joe Wood scored two each for Manor with Tommy Davies and Scott Turner also on target.

Woodville Wanderers are level on points with the leaders following their 8-3 triumph over Bourne. Linton Robertson scored for Woodville five minutes before the interval as the first half finished all square 1-1. Whatever Woodville gave their players at half time worked wonders as Jacob Cole scored a minute after the break and substitute Mauricio Albarich added another two minutes later.
