Davis double is the difference

Sam Davis' double strike proved decisive when West Howe shaded it 3-2 against AFC East Christchurch in DIVISION ONE of the Hayward Sunday League. Ollie Davis was the other West Howe scorer with the visitors replying through Jake Kent and Michael Cowland.

Vienna Suttoners move up to second place in DIVISION TWO after James Bainton, Matty Chapman-Burnett, and Craig Warren gave them the edge 3-2 against Portchester who replied through Tom Harris and Brad Venn-Griffiths.

Danny Harrison-Little struck twice in Wiseguys' 4-3 win over Bournemouth Sports Mercury. Jordan Burgess and Andy Gagan were the other Wiseguys scorers while Mercury replied through Matt Underwood and a couple of goals from Anthony Bolton.

Second placed AFC Stourvale netted through Ben Cuddy and Alistair Gerard in DIVISION THREE but TGC just got the better of them 3-2 thanks to Harry Bunce and a couple of goals from Liam Carpenter.

Johnston strike enough to keep Rushmere top

Rushmere hold on to spot in DIVISION FOUR after Jordyn Johnston's 78th minute strike settled the issue 1-0 against Kirkfield United.

Unbeaten FC Hadjuk remain two points behind with a game in hand following their 5-2 success against Boscombe Celtic courtesy of Elliot Dawson, Alex Fernandes, Adam Baxter, and Lewis Sainval's brace. Alex Rossi and Radu-Mihai Ene were the Celtic scorers.

Jack Roberts struck twice for Kings Park Rangers but Winton Athletic returned to winning ways when Alex Horswill, JJ Rayner, and a couple of goals from Lloyd Pearce gave them the upper hand 4-2.

Meanwhile, in the other Division Four game, Jordan Ormond scored both Scott V goals in their 2-1 win over AJ who replied through Yusuf Akanni.

Rhys Jessop bagged a brace when Hordle Spurs opened up a five point lead at the top of DIVISION SIX following their 4-2 victory over Boscombe Celtic "A". Toby Collinge and Richard Grubb added one each for Spurs while Jake Morgan scored both goals for Celtic.

Academy move up to third place after Cameron Whitley, Ryan Gorman, and Malachi Richards gave them the edge 3-2 against AFC Burton Reserves who replied through Ricardo De Rocha and Matthew Lock who then blotted his copybook by being sent off.

Muscliff Dynamos were also 3-2 winners when James Stocker scored twice to subdue Southside Vipers with Ben Mead also on target. Dan Jones and substitute Troy Turner were the Southside marksmen.

High flyers crash out of Dorset Sunday Cup

Division Six new boys Shane Stanley caused a big upset in the second round of the DORSET SUNDAY CHALLENGE CUP when they ousted Division Four high flyers Kraken Sports 4-1 courtesy of Jamie Ray Minett, Sam Carter, and a couple of goals from Carl Edwards. Ross Dominey provided some consolation for Kraken from the penalty spot.

Poole Rovers from Division Five were also punching above their weight when they KO'd Third Division Tower Park 3-0 with goals from Stephen Dennis, Karl Chalkley, and substitute Lewis Worrall.

Ollie Howard struck for Fourth Division Alderney Manor Reserves but Forest United from Division Five were 4-1 winners thanks to Brad Stanley, Louie Dacombe, and a couple of goals from Max Thomas.

Sam Lanahan and Callum Perry both notched hat-tricks when Division One giants Abbey crushed Upton Sociedad 12-1. Mickey Hubbard bagged a brace and there were further goals from Kenny Strong, Jack Holland, Marc Vincent, and Ryan Warrener while Alex Airey scored the Sociedad consolation goal.

A four salvo from master blaster Shane Barney saw AFC Tavern safely through 5-2 against Poole Wanderers. Joe Moore was the other Tavern scorer while Wanderers replied through Scott Burbidge and Aaron Willis.

Adam Frohlich struck twice in Poole Borough's 5-3 success against Windgreen Corfe Mullen with Tony O'Callaghan, Dominic Yendal, and Sammy Burrige adding one each. George Deem bagged a brace for Windgreen with substitute Nick Christopher getting the other one.

Parkstone have no difficulty finding the net at the moment, giving Branksome Liberal Reserves an 8-0 drubbing. They do, however, seem to have a little problem with their adding up as they appear to have no less than ten goal scorers. Substitute Matt Knight seems to have weighed in with a hat-trick with George Gibbs and Jamie O'Shea adding two each, with Matthew Pope, Scott Rudd, and Mitchell Cooper also on target.

Meanwhile Andy Rigler's goal for Branksome Liberal was not quite enough to save them from a 2-1 defeat against AFC Wimborne whose goals came via Nathan Satangelo-Barber and Ayrton White.

The remaining scheduled Sunday League and Cup games were postponed due to waterlogged pitches.
